

2009
RISD Summer School
Virtual School Pilot

* Selected online courses will be offered for credit recovery and/or “get-ahead” courses with counselor approval.

* Course fees will be $339 per semester.

Courses Offered

English 1-4, Communications Applications, Algebra 1, Algebra 2, Geometry, Pre-calculus, Calculus, World History, World Geography, U.S. History, U. S. Government, Economics, Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Spanish 1, Spanish 2, Latin 1, Latin 2

* All courses will require counselor approval.

The RISD and the Virtual School Network will partner during the 2009 Summer School to provide a Virtual School online course opportunity.

“The Virtual School Network online curriculum offers today’s students a flexible course of study grounded in high standards with unprecedented instructional support and engaging real-world content.”

Please see your counselor for enrollment information.

Exceptional instructional support that includes:

- Individualized Instruction
- State Certified Teachers
- High quality online courses, aligned with the Texas TEKS
- Teacher support
- 24 hour access to assignments, grades, and research resources

Virtual School Network offers students and parents an alternative path to success through a host of customizable solutions and individualized learning opportunities.

- Flexible pacing and content delivery suitable for every-level learner
- Progress monitoring and assessment choices so students can demonstrate their progress their way

